

A MESSAGE FROM PROFESSOR A. SAMAD SHERA

PRESIDENT OF DASG

This newsletter is very brief because I want you to read the important messages in this letter.

The second conference of DASG will be held in Doha, Qatar 26th and 27th March 2010.

We have an exciting programme for you. Details can be viewed on our web site www.da-sg.org.

The conference is being held at Sheraton Doha, a prominent figure on the skyline of Doha, located just outside the city centre you have a beautiful view onto the wonderful "Pearl of Qatar".

Should you wish to take advantage of the reduced rates for the conference registration, please make certain that you join the membership before the conference. Please refer to the web site for details on how to join.

The DASG General Assembly will convene at 1630 hours on Friday, March 26, 2010.

All members will be able to attend this.

However, should you wish to vote or to stand for election to the Executive Board, you must fulfil the following requirements -

- a. You must be a member for at least six months
- b. You must have paid the annual membership fee - this means that you should have been a member for 2009, and paid your dues for 2010 before the conference.
- c. Should you wish to nominate a person for election to the Board, please consult the constitution, which is available on the web site, before writing to the Secretary General?

Your contact details - It is most important that your contact details held by our office is correct. Please send an e-mail to Dr. Arun Bakshi, who is the Secretary General, confirming this. His e-mail address is - bakshi@bakshi.demon.co.uk

I take this opportunity to remind you that the real strength of DASG lies in the continued support of the members; please ensure that your annual subscriptions are paid.

I look forward to welcoming you in Doha.

With best wishes

A. Samad Shera, President
